OPEN CALL for cultural projects of the ECoC 2024

Design Culture: Inspire Our Tomorrow!

Inquiry about modern concepts and artistic discoveries.

OPEN CALL for cultural projects as part of the East of Culture festival at the European Stadium of Culture 2024.

East of Culture – European Cultural Stadium has become a permanent fixture in the calendar of city events in Rzeszów. It is the largest in Podkarpacie and one of the most interesting interdisciplinary festivals in Poland, which since its beginning in 2011 has been providing participants with an intense dose of artistic experiences. The East of Culture Festival, the European Stadium of Culture, is a space for implementing unconventional projects.

OPEN CALL Design Culture: Inspire Our Tomorrow !, i.e. a call for applications for the comprehensive implementation of artistic projects that will be part of the program of the East of Culture - European Stadium of Culture 2024 festival.

This year we focus on:

- international cooperation
- modern concepts
- artistic discoveries.

East of Culture European Stadium of Culture is a festival that creates space for implementing unconventional projects, experimenting and combining various fields of art.

- The main theme is move to change

This year's edition of the WK ECC 2024 festival will have its own motto for activities initiated in connection with the organization of individual events. We will focus on dynamically mobilizing the local community, artists and creators to change perspectives, open up to new opportunities and possibilities, and think beyond the established ones.
